

NHSC & Nurse Corps Loan Repayment Programs (LRP)

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AFTER NURSING EDUCATION AND HELPING COMMUNITIES IN NEED

What is NHSC and Who can apply?

- NHSC stands for National Health Service Corps
- NHSC helps Nurse Practitioners (NPs) or Certified Nurse Midwives (CNMs) with school loans; 3 different repayment categories

What is Nurse Corps and Who can apply?

- A sister program of NHSC that focuses on helping working RNs, Advanced Practice Registered Nurses (APRNs) or an employed nurse faculty with school loans.

NHSC

vs

Nurse Corps

- Provides financial assistance of up to $25,000 to $100,000 towards qualifying student loans ; tax exempt

- Requires a two-to-three-year commitment at approved sites

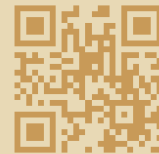

- Half-time (20–39 hours per week) or full-time (40 hours per week)

- Dedicate two years to full-time service (at least 32 hours per week) at an Critical Shortage Facility

- Offers 60% loan repayment for 2 year service, additional 25% for optional 3rd year

- Taxable

Program	Time Commitment	Award Amount
NHSC
NHSC LRP	2 years; 3rd optional	$50,000 (full-time) & $25,000 (half-time)
NHSC Workforce LRP	3 years	$75,000 (full-time) & $37,500 (half-time)
NHSC Rural Community LRP	3 years	$100,000 (full-time) & $50,000 (half-time)
NURSE CORPS
Nurse Corps LRP	2 years; 3rd optional	60% loan repayment (additional 25% for the 3rd year)

NHSC
Webpage

Nurse Corps
Webpage

LRP Portal

Job Connector

Applicants can apply to more than one program but are only allowed to accept loan repayment from one.